FOR PACK OF QUEENS

Miss Mabel Larimer Entertains Thursday Evening.

JUDGE HOOK IS HONORED

At a Whist Party in Commercial Club Rooms.

Miss Mabel Larimer most delightfully entertained a few friends at her studio in the Sedgwick block last Thursday evening. The early part of the evening was spent entertaining the Pack of Queens, and those present were Miss Hinton, Miss Magill, Miss Potts and Mrs. Howard Moffat.

The tables at which the guests spent the hours of playing whist were exquisitely decorated with dainty vases of cut flowers. Miss Woods and Mrs. Kelso were awarded the prizes as the successful players of the evening. At 10 o'clock the arrival of the gentlemen added more pleasure to the closing hours. Elegant refreshments were served at a late hour.

Those present were: Misses Olive Magill, Abbie O'Brien, Myrtle Hinton, Genevieve Jocelyn, Daisy Woods, Ada Scott, Rose Wallenstein; Messrs. Louis Hirsch of St. Louis, Theo. Goldsmith, R. G. Hagney, J. Elmer Reese, J. Allen Davenport, Robert Morris, Claude Larimer; Messrs. and Mesdames Howard Moffat, T. P. Kelso, W. P. Jones, J. Z. Hoffman.

FOR JUDGE HOOK.

One of the most jovial gatherings of the past week was the whist party given Friday evening at the Commercial club rooms in the honor of Judge William G. Hook of the United States court. The conversation was spirited during the entire time and every one proceeded to enjoy the event to the fullest extent.

A delightful spread was a feature of the latter part of the evening and while the guests were at the tables the storm caused the lights to flicker and then go out for good. After hunting around for lamps, a number of candles were secured and the feast went on by candle light.

Whittles and happy good humor reigned supreme during the hours of the event.

The guests present were: Messrs. Judge William Hook, Edward Vale, E. E. Blackley, Henry Wallenstein, Chas. G. Cohn, Chas. Aylesbury, F. W. Oliver, Howard Case, J. Q. Hamilton, Judge David M. Dale, Dr. A. H. Fabrique, Dr. J. E. Oldham, Dr. J. C. Hoffman, S. B. Amidon, Rev. J. H. Thien, J. O. Davidson, T. G. Fitch, C. R. Fulton, Fred Doid, C. H. Brooks, C. H. Smyth, James Jones, J. B. Houston, A. S. Parks, Sid Ashton, C. V. Ferguson.

FOR MR. BLAKE.

At his home on South Topeka avenue Mr. Earl Blake was successfully surprised by a few of his friends who assembled to aid him in celebrating his 30th anniversary. The guests presented Mr. Blake with a handsome oak rocking chair, but for which they had made excuse that it was borrowed for fear they would not have chairs enough and he knew nothing of the gift until all had departed. The evening was very pleasantly spent at games and conversation. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames G. T. Walker, E. A. Kinnaird, H. L. Piper, J. T. Kierke, D. A. McNicol, A. R. Marsh, W. A. Ayres, T. T. Turner, W. O. Bryan; Misses Grace Davidson, Cora McKibben; Messrs. Ed Blake and Burt McKibben.

MR. AND MRS. BAKER.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker pleasantly entertained a few of their friends last Monday evening at their home on South Main street. After several hours of amusement at whist and other card games refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harlow, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bristow, Misses Anna McClain, Lillian Bennett, Minnie Drake, De Lillian Albertson of California, Messrs. George McNeal, Charles McClain, Charles Joseph.

CHILD CULTURE CLUB.

The first meeting of the Child Culture club was held Thursday at the regular place and time—Plymouth church at 3 p. m., with Mrs. B. F. McLean as the chair, the president being absent.

Minutes of the last two meetings were read and approved.

Roll call was responded to by quotations from the address given by Mrs. Wynans, vice president of the Mothers' league.

Mrs. Wilcox was elected vice president and Mrs. Hamilton financial secretary. The election of recording secretary was postponed till the next regular meeting.

It was deemed advisable to add to the program of the regular club subjects as given in the Child Garden Magazine, a course of lectures on physical culture by Miss Mabel Millson, on domestic economy by Miss Vandivert, and psychology by Prof. Hook. Other subjects of interest to be decided upon later.

The matter of church collection for the benefit of the Free Kindergarten and the Children's Home fund was discussed. The present need for money for material for the Free Kindergarten, which is soon to reopen, made it a necessity to ask the collection to be taken up Sunday, September 16.

A number of new names were added to the already long list of members. Subscriptions for the Child Garden and Mother's Ideals were taken and many dues paid in.

Mrs. Bissell's vocal solo was much enjoyed. Her voice is sweetly and soothingly sympathetic. She was accompanied by Miss Laura Lathrop, a pianist who has the rare ability of forgetting herself in expressing the author's thought.

Mr. E. Stanley's paper on "Hereditary Factors in Defects of Character and Their Relations to Moral Conduct" was most beneficial and interesting. Mrs. Stanley was urged to allow the entire paper to be published later that many others might have the privilege of giving this vital question more consideration.

Miss Carrie Shultz talk on her visit in an ideal home and her attendance at the Longwood summer school in Chicago was not on the program.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

A most happy and successful 5th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Donnell, 424 Hewitt avenue. Last evening a party of friends took possession of their home and a most delightful evening was spent with music and conversation. Later Mrs. Donnell served delicious refreshments and all left wishing them many happy returns of the day. Many beautiful and costly presents were given.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. James Allison, Dr. and Mrs. Bass, Mr. and Mrs. B. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Roy, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Means, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Howard.

GAVE A RECEPTION.

The annual reception given by the Christian associations of Friends' university for the new students occurred in University hall last evening. The halls and association rooms were decorated with palms and cut flowers and made very inviting by comfortable chairs and cozy corners. The new association room at the left of the main entrance, which has recently been furnished with handsome oak pieces and with one of the grand pianos, was a most attractive place. In various corners delicious frappe and wafers were served to the guests during the evening.

Each young man upon his arrival was furnished with a gray card upon which was written a sonnet, the answer to which was to be found on a similar card worn by a young lady. These cards were tied with red ribbon, thus completing the "various colors." Music was furnished throughout the evening by different students, both old and new. Never was a more merry or better looking company of students gathered together in these spacious halls. There were about 300 guests present.

For the success of the evening's entertainment much credit is due the committee in charge, and especially to the Misses Burleigh, Means and Martindale, for their untiring efforts to make all things pleasant for the new students.

The official count of the votes for the queen of the carnival last night revealed a decided change in the contest. Miss Josephine Getto, whose name was recently withdrawn, now leads in the contest with 1782 votes to her credit.

After Miss Getto withdrew from the list of candidates a number of her friends insisted that they be allowed to use her name in today's voting. Miss Getto consented with the above result.

Miss Hinton is in second position and Miss Pierce third. Miss Hinton did not receive any votes yesterday, but Miss Pierce received eighty votes during the day.

The contest is attracting much attention at the present time owing to the fact that the contest closes Tuesday night. The voting Monday will be carried on at the various places as heretofore and on Monday night after the count the ballot boxes will be taken up and on Tuesday the voting will be only at the office of Orville A. Boyle in the Biting block. The carnival queen contest committee will be at the office to take charge of the contest and from the time the voting commences until the close at night no one will know anything concerning the relative position of the candidates or of the votes being cast for them.

On the day following the selection of the queen the committee in charge will arrange for the queen to select her robes should she so desire at that time. It is expected that a change in the vote will occur Monday as an active canvass was being made yesterday in the interest of those already in the race.
